Learn something new today with over 500 free online courses. Just click on the Universal Class link at the bottom of the library homepage hobokenlibrary.org. You can access the service within the library without a library card. Hoboken Public Library Resident Card holders will be able to access the service from home with their library card numbers. You have access to your course 24/7 via the Internet. Each course has an instructor. Your instructor will monitor your work, review and assess your submissions, and be available to answer any questions or concerns throughout the course by email.

Get Creative this Year with HPL!

Drawing Classes with Liz Cohen

On Wednesdays at 10 AM, art teacher Liz Cohen will hold a new series of FOUR drawing classes. These classes are a continuation of the first three series, but will accommodate beginners as well as more experienced artists. Artist students will go from their first triumphs of drawing the human face to drawing the entire human figure.

Henna Workshop

The art of applying henna to the hands and feet is known as Mehndi, and is traditionally used for celebrations and rites of passage. Every culture and region of the world uses henna tattoos in its own unique way. On Monday January 9 at 6 PM, join talented artist Nila at the Hoboken Public Library. She will be showcasing and teaching this ancient art and her unique skills!

Four Part Knitting Class

On Tuesdays January 10, 17, 24, and 31 from 9 -11 AM, you will learn how to knit in the round, work increases and decreases, make a lace pattern, cables, and a buttonhole while creating a hat.

First come first served on January 10. Please plan to attend every class in order to learn all the techniques and complete your hat.

Paper Roses for Martin Luther King Jr.

On Tuesday January 10 at 3:30 PM, the Children's Department will honor the legacy Martin Luther King, Jr! Kids can craft paper roses attached to positive messages. These paper roses will be made available to library patrons to take and distribute throughout town all week. Join us in helping to create Random Acts of Kindness in Hoboken!

yoga poses and puppets! Story time is for children age 4+ years. This event requires a free ticket for each child, which can be reserved the day prior to the program on Eventbrite.

Hoboken Public Library Makerspace Events!

Open Use Makerspace Time

The Makerspace will be open on Mondays 1-7 PM with many of the tools and equipment available for use. Come see our 3D Printer, Oculus, robotics kits, and more! No appointment or registration required! A staff member will be present to assist. Those under the age of 13 need to be adult accompaniment.

Open Tech Time

On Mondays between 1 PM and 3 PM as part of our Makerspace we will have Open Tech Time. Bring your technology or computer question and check out the library's eReaders and tablets.

De-stress and Self Express

On Thursday January 5 at 7 PM come relax after the holidays and meet some new friends. We have new gel pens and new coloring books.

Tinkercad: Make Real Stuff

With free cloud-based software anyone can build their own models and 3D print their final creations on Monday afternoons during the library's Makerspace. On Monday January 30 at 5:30 PM, Hoboken designer and animator Nicola Hoelzl is hosting a 1-hour intro session to 3D-modeling. Students will follow the online lessons, learning to navigate and create models. Each participant can produce their own designs, either a toy house, a pet sculpture, or jewelry. Recently, Nicola created an online 3D-modeling course called D*Wiz and she is also currently teaching after-school enrichment programs at Hoboken schools. Please note that a valid email address is required to use the Tinkercad website.

Improve Your Career and Business Opportunities with HPL

SCORE: Small Business Opportunities

Have you always wanted to start a small business, but don't know where to start? In this seminar on Tuesday January 10 at 6:30 PM, you will learn common myths and truths about franchising; ownership options like professional advisory services, facilitation, light manufacturing, social entrepreneurship, education, and home services; and passive owner models. For over 50 years, SCORE has served as a source of free, confidential business education and mentoring in America. Their mentors include experienced business owners and managers.

Workshop: Building Wardrobe Confidence & Your Image

On Thursday January 12 at 7 PM discover your professional style and gain confidence knowing how to best create an image that best represents your goals. Learn to dress for success!

New Jersey Division of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Awareness

On Thursday January 19 at 7 PM, join us for a program about Deaf and Hard of Hearing Awareness, Technology, Resources, and Deaf Culture, and Sensitivity. The presentation itself is about an hour with 30 minutes for the audience to ask questions.

The state of New Jersey has a large number of resources available not just for the deaf, but also for those with hearing loss such as senior citizens and individuals who lose their hearing later in life, including veterans who come back from overseas with hearing loss related to loud noise exposure. ASL interpreters will be available at this program.
