Summer Reading Fun For All Ages

Hoboken Public Library Now Offers Faxing Services

Fax services are available on the second floor at the Hoboken Public Library Reference Department. The appointment to use fax services can be made in person at the reference desk, by phone at 201-420-2347, or via email to reference@hoboken.bccls.org. Please have the fax number ready before asking for the use of machine. A valid email address is required for sending faxes. If patron does not have an email, staff will assist in creating one; this may require an additional appointment so please let us know ahead if you will need to do so. Faxing costs $1.00 per page including cover page paid prior to faxing. Each fax is limited to 10 pages at a time. The library can only send outgoing faxes.

If you would prefer, you can also make an appointment to use the library's scanner to scan documents for free.

On Your Mark, Get Set, ... Read!

Join us on a seven week long adventure! Read, explore, and create to earn prizes all summer long. Library patrons of all ages are welcome to sign up in person or online at <https://hobokenlibrary.beanstack.org/> Summer Reading began on June 25 and runs until August 13!

Beanstack uses a user-friendly interface for participants to track their summer reading and registered children/families will also receive weekly book recommendations as well as event notifications.

Summer Reading For Kids & Teens

There are two different age levels for kids: The Early Literacy Program for children from birth to pre-school and Children from Kindergarten to 5th grade. Teens is for 6th-12th graders. Simply select the appropriate program when registering online with your Hoboken Library Card Number (children must be Hoboken residents or go to school in Hoboken). Summer reading aids in the retention of students' reading skills during summer vacation. Besides just promoting reading the library also offers many fun and informative activities all summer long where participants can earn additional badges by participating. Get in the game and sign up for summer reading today!

Story Times in the Park

On Tuesdays at 10:30 AM, join us for simple stories and songs for children 6 mos. to 2 ½ years and a caregiver at the Church Square Park gazebo. On Wednesday at 10:30 AM, there will be story time for older children ages 2 ½ yrs. +. No tickets required.

Read to a Dog

On Wednesday June 22 at 3:30 PM, if your child is beginning to read or is a reluctant reader, call us (201-420-2348) or stop by to register for an appointment to have them read to a trained therapy dog. For children in kindergarten and up.

Muggle Quidditch!

Harry Potter fans, get your athletic gear on Saturday July 16! We'll be playing Muggle Quidditch in Church Square Park. Separate games for children and teens based on age. Tickets available through Eventbrite.

Adults Exercise your Mind – Read!

Join HPL for another fun-filled summer of reading. Open to all adults 18+ with a Hoboken Library card. Sign up and be eligible to win great grand prizes, weekly drawings, and an End-of Summer Reading party on August 24. The contest runs from June 25 to August 13. Register in person or sign up at hobokenlibrary.beanstack.org

Contact Book Discussion
