The HPL Creation Space March Events

Teen Video Game Coding

Want to create your own game? Join us on Tuesday, March 10 at 3:30 PM! Teens will learn the basics of computer programming while flexing their creative muscles to build their own unique online video game. For teens who enjoy playing video games join us every Friday at 3 PM for Game Time.

Spring Holiday Magnets

On Friday, March 13 between 2 - 4 PM, come and learn how to make magnets using our magnet maker. We will have predone templates or bring a digital photo with you to upload from your phone or flash drive. Great for gifts! The first magnet is free. There will be a small charge for any additional magnets made. This is an all ages event, but children under 13 should be accompanied by an adult.

Cooking Program

On Saturday, March 28 at 2 PM, come make some fun recipes. Kids under 13 must be accompanied by an adult. Please disclose any allergies.

Teen Sound Camp: Garage Band Basics

On Tuesday, March 31 at 3:30 PM, collaborate with others to create a song using our recording studio. You don't have to be musician or own instrument to have fun learning the basics of recording music.

Open Creation Time

Every Monday join us between 1 PM and 7 PM for open maker space time. No registration required! Kids under 13 must be accompanied by an adult.

Women's History Month at the Hoboken Public Library

Wisdom & Women LIVE: An Evening of Women's Empowerment

On March 26 at 7 PM, come and share your feminine awesomeness amongst power-women in Hoboken. Hosted by Elizabeth Barry, in presentation with Hoboken Women's Network & Lady Savant. Reserve your place at this confidence-boosting event centered upon the free downloadable eBook "Wisdom of the Years," featuring motivational stories from nearly 20 female Hoboken pioneers who came together to share their wisdom and advice in her book. There will be a live reading by key speakers, followed by surprise guests and a mini-writing workshop to write your own "Letter to their Younger Self". Refreshments will be served and an after party will end the evening at O'NEALS across the park from the library.

Women's History Month Poetry Reading

The YA Department will host its annual poetry reading to honor Women's History Month on March ? At ?. Students will read poems by their favorite female poets.

March's Gallery Artist: Elliott Gilbert

Hoboken artist and picture book illustrator Elliott Gilbert will be displaying his work in our gallery and have a reception on Monday, March 9 at 4 PM. His education has included the Brooklyn Museum Art School, Parson's School of Design, Pratt Institute and The Art Student's League. He has studied with such prominent artists as Issac Soyer, Gregorio Prestopino and Rufino Tamayo. His activities have included many summers in Provence, France, painting its villages and landscapes, some of which are included in this exhibition. Gilbert has won numerous awards. Other activities include children's picture books, which he has both written and illustrated. Currently available: The Best Loved Doll, Max Goes Hunting, My Cat Story, and Liz- zie!. The interplay of light and dark, and the subtleties and complexities of color, have been for Elliott Gilbert always part of the challenge: making something significant of the mundane is another. He feels whether it be an apple or a panoramic view of some distant land, the artist's interpretive sense will prevail, and it will be his vision for the art lover to enjoy.

March Special Children's Programs

Dr. Seuss Storytime

On Monday, March 2 at 3:15 PM, children ages 3 1/2+, join us for our annual celebration of all things Seuss. We will Seussercize to music from "Seussical the Musical," do a very special reading of "Horton Hatches the Egg," and do a simple Seuss craft and coloring page. Eventbrite RSVP required.

Puppetry

On Saturday, March 14 at 2 PM
