Coming June 13 the Hoboken Public Library Book Festival!

Be a Hero... Read, Imagine, and Create at the Hoboken Public Library's Book Festival! Join us in celebrating Reading and Literacy on Saturday, June 13 from 11 AM to 5 PM. The event is Rain or Shine! There will be lots of fun things for kids including a Bouncy Castle, Face Painting, Arts and Crafts, and a performance of the Wizard of Oz. Kids can even meet a REAL LIVE SUPER HERO! Come see eReaders, tablets, the 3D printer, and learn about our eResources in our Technology Petting Zoo. It will feature New and Used Book Sales and local food vendors. Teens can participate in a workshop to learn to draw fun caricatures. Join us for a special reading in Honor of the 125th Anniversary of the Hoboken Public Library including an open mic. Plus the Hoboken Division of Cultural Affairs will be sponsoring Sinatra style singers for their Sounds of Sinatra Weekend, in celebration of Sinatra's Centennial.

May Creationspace

Ice Cream Program

Now that the weather's getting warmer it's time for a cold treat! On Saturday, May 9 at 2 PM, learn all about ice cream and how to make some at home even without an ice cream maker. Of course we will be making ice cream to sample. Kids under 13 must be accompanied by an adult. Please disclose any allergies.

All Ages Open Creation Time

The Creation Space will be open on Mondays from 1-7 PM, with tools and equipment including a 3D Printer, 3D Scanner, a variety of kits, Button/Magnet Makers, a Photography Station and a Music Recording Station. No registration required! Those under 13 need to be accompanied by an adult. Monday makerspaces are open to all ages.

Maker Events Just for Kids and Teens

Sound Camp:

Garage Band Basics

On May 6 at 3:30 PM, collaborate with others to create a song using our recording studio. You don't have to be musician or own instrument to have fun learning the basics of recording music. For teens in grades 6 through 12.

Bead Art

On May 27 at 3:30 PM, turn your favorite comic book or video game character into an amazing beaded work of art. For teens in grades 6 & up.

Computer Classes at the Hoboken Public Library

Computer Basics in Spanish

Spanish speakers can join us on May 6 at 6 PM, for an introduction to computer use. Perfect for beginners.

Open Tech Time

Whether it is a software or hardware question, or to check out the library's eReaders and tablets, stop in for our Open Tech Time on May 20 at 6 PM. For Spanish & English Speakers.

Email Attachments

On May 29 at 2 PM, come in and learn the basics of adding attachments to your email. Perfect for job seekers wanting to learn to send an electronic copy of resumes.

SHERLOCK HOLMES & THE HOUND OF THE BASKERVILLES: A Staged Radio Play

On May 28 at 7 PM, Travel back in time with Raconteur Radio and enjoy period costumes and Golden Age radio equipment! Adapted by Alex Dawson from the novel by Arthur Conan Doyle. The eerie mists of Dartmoor and the black block of Baskerville

Hall are the setting for tonight's program. The hunt is on as Holmes and Watson, in their most terrifying case, ignore the warnings and search for their four-legged suspect, hoping the hound proves, to be more delusion than demon. Raconteur

Radio stages theatrical performances of vintage radio plays and classic works of literature throughout the Tri-state.

Get Creative at the Hoboken Public Library!

May Drawing Classes

Learn to Draw Part I and Part II with local artist Heather Leigh Corey on Thursday, May 14 at 6:30-8 PM and Tuesday, May 26 at 6-7:30 PM. Learn to Draw Part I will focus on drawing the human form. Learn to Draw Part II will focus on how to draw a still life. Students are encouraged to bring objects with linear qualities (twig, wire, string, etc.)

for Part I and three 'sentimental objects' with 3D textures for Part II. Students will use graphite, charcoal, and white chalk.

Park Bench Poetry

On May 16 at 2 PM, join us for an Open Mic in the Gazebo across from the library. Share your music or poetry! Our featured performer is The Third Wheel Band.

Henna Program

On May 19 at 6 PM in honor of Asian Pacific American Heritage Month, come learn about traditional henna art with Henna By Mobina! Leave with a unique henna design. Henna is made from a tropical shrub and used to decorate the body with a red/orange design, which lasts two weeks or more. Parents permission required, if under 18.

Get Moving at the Hoboken Public Library!

Creating Good Posture: An Introduction to the Alexander Technique

Do you have poor posture? Does your neck, back or shoulders hurt? Do you have tight muscles? On May 13 at 6:30 PM, let Nationally Certified Alexander Technique teacher, Morgan Rysdon, show you how to use your body with more freedom, ease and poise getting the posture you want!

Wedding Dancing

Are you or a loved one getting married soon? Want to show off some new moves? Join us on May 21 at 7 PM, when Hoboken's own dance expert, Tracy Everitt will teach you to dance.

Authors and Artists at the Hoboken Public Library

May Gallery

This May the library will be featuring Weehawken resident, Martha Colon's chic fashionista pen and ink drawings. Artist reception May 12 at 6 PM.

Author Talk

On May 7 at 7:30 PM, Molly Vollman Makris will discuss her new book, Public Housing and School Choice in a Gentrified City, a study examining the influence of intra-district school choice and charter schools on the education of youth in public housing in Hoboken. Makris is a Post-doctoral Research Associate at Rutgers.

Come Read and Write with Us at Hoboken Public Library!

Hoboken Public Library Writer's Group

Our HPL Writer's Group will be meeting May 11 at 6 PM. Discuss your work in a supportive environment. We will work on a writing prompt and also discuss writing submitted via email to the group members ahead of time. Email hplwriters@gmail.com to be added to the mailing list for more details.

Discuss Better Than Before

On May 28 at 7 PM, join us for best-selling author Gretchen Rubin's latest self-help hit Better Than Before: Mastering the Habits of Our Everyday Lives.

Special copies for loan of book discussion books will be available at the Reference desk for participants to check out. Ebook versions are also available on the eReaders in our tech loan program.

Let the Hoboken Public Library Help with Planning for College and Job Searching!

College Planning

Learn how to pay for college without going broke! We encourage college-bound students to attend this free workshop with their parents on May 20th at 6 PM, to learn about the college application process. You will learn about filing a FAFSA Form and how to pay college bills in the most efficient way possible.

Resume Class

If you are looking for your first job or a new job, the Hoboken Public Library can help. On May 23 at 2 PM, learn the basics of writing resumes and improving your existing resume. You may bring a printed or electronic copy of your resume to work on.

Kids, Be a Mad Scientist at the Hoboken Public Library!

On Saturday, May 2 @ 2 PM & 3 PM, join us for Mad Science with Julie Serritella. We guarantee that you will come away from this program smarter than you started. Learn simple principles in experiments that show how science works in our everyday life. This is a STEM program that is guaranteed to turn your kids into Science fans. Please take ticket for every child attending. This is an open program, so a Hoboken library card is not required. Best for ages 4+. Saturday family programs are sponsored by the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library.
