Summer Reading Continues for Kids, Teens, & Adults!

The Hoboken Public Library's Summer Reading programs for Children, Teens, and Adults started in July and continue throughout August. This year's state themes for different age groups all relate to what lies underground or beneath the surface. Whether this makes you think of gardening, whimsical woodland creatures, or fantastical journeys, the library has some great reads for you! You can see some books that fit the "groundbreaking" theme in the display cases on the 2nd floor. To participate in our summer reading programs you can read any type of books you would like and in any format (print or ebook). There are prizes and parties for each age group. To find out more about the Summer Reading programs for different age levels simply click on the link on the library's home page: hobokenlibrary.org or stop by the first or third floor circulation desks. So far 45 adults, 22 teens, and 195 kids are participating. Join them and don't miss out on the prize, parties, and fun. Sign up today!

The Art of Phil Huling at the Hoboken Public Library

Phil Huling's artwork will be on display throughout the month of August in the second floor vestibule art gallery. Huling has received numerous awards for his images, which have appeared on book jackets, in magazines, advertisements, video productions and children's books. His work has been featured on the poster's for the Friends of HPL Novel Night and Novella Night and on the library's 2013 Adult Summer Reading Poster.

If you are interested in having your artwork featured at the library email hobkref@bccls.org.

Pinterest @ the Library: <http://pinterest.com/hobokenlibrary/>

In addition to our facebook, twitter, and blog, the library now features a Pinterest page. Pinterest is a fun resource for those who have a visual mind. Pins are pictures that are either linked from a website or uploaded. They are organized on boards that can be on a wide variety of topics. The library's Pinterest page includes HPL Staff Recommendations, Programs and Events, Local History Photos, Frank Sinatra Films, New Comics and Manga Arrivals, and Criterion Collection - Blu-ray. It is a great way to see what is available and happening at HPL.

Participate in the Friends of HPL's 2013 Novella Night

This year The Friends of the Hoboken Public Library are sponsoring their second Novella Night. This "lite" version of Novel Night, guaranteed to be fun, food-centric and fabulous, will take place Saturday, October 19. Party-givers are asked to host festive cocktail parties. Hosts may choose book themes if they wish, or add another cultural note to their menu with a display of art, a musical interlude, whatever! Funds raised by Novella Night will go toward replacing the Library's front door with an entrance more suitable to the beautiful and historic building. However, you don't need to wait until October to contribute to this important effort. A brochure with more information is available at the Library; please pick up a copy and support this very worthy cause. Tickets will be $75 per person. You can learn more about hosting or being a guest at Novella Night on the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library's website at <http://www.hobokenfol.org/novellnight.html>.
