

Poetry Month @ the Library

Join us during Library Week in celebrating these poetry related events at the library!

Teen Reading

On Monday, April 14th, begin the day with poetry. Students and teachers from Hoboken High School, Brandt Middle School and A.J. Demarest School will read favorite poems by well known authors as well as original work of their own. The reading, which is the culmination of a three-part series, begins at 10a.m. and will be held in the Reading Room on the 2nd floor.

Poetry Reading

On Thursday, April 17th, at 6:30 PM there will be a poetry reading featuring local poets: Ona Gritz, Beth Marcuzzo and Aimee Sefczek. Ona has an MFA from New York University. Beth studied English & French Lit at Upsala College and the American Univ. in Paris. Aimee earned an MFA in Creative Writing from Emerson College. Ona and Aimee are both librarians at the Hoboken Public Library.

NJ Poets Display

There will be a display in the second floor vestibule on New Jersey Poets. Learn more about Robert Pinsky, Allen Ginsberg, William Carlos Williams, and other notable Poets from Garden State.
