

August Book Review

Star Wars: Legacy of the Force: Betrayal

Following the events of New Jedi Order and Dark Nest series; this first in a new series of novels follows the Jedi Knights' ethical dilemmas and intricate battle maneuvers as they set out to diffuse a developing conflict between the Galactic Alliance (GA) and Correllia, Han Solo's home planetary system. The Corellians are chafing under GA rule and are preparing to strike for independence by arming a deadly weapon in their star system known as Center-point Station. The weapon caused great destruction during a previous war, and Luke is determined that the Corellians don't harness its power now. He dispatches Jedi

Jacen Solo, the son of Han and Leia, and his own son, Ben, who is Jacen's apprentice, to neutralize the threat. Friendships and alliances are tested and what the reader thinks they know will change dramatically from beginning to end. Life-long fans as well as new readers will not be disappointed.

Here's What's Happening in August @ Your Library

What's Happening in Children's The Children's Room is getting a face-lift! We are installing new shelves in our popular picture book area. We will also soon have restored air conditioning. Due to the work being done, some changes have been made in our summer programming schedule. The Children's Summer Reading Club is still in action. Children entering first through fifth grades, please come let us know what you're reading and how you like it on our special reading club sheets. The Summer Reading Club party is scheduled for Tuesday, August 15th at 1:30. This is subject to change due to construction and lack of air conditioning. Please contact us closer to the date so we may let you know. Also, due to the same concerns, the Wednesday Story/Craft program and Friday video program will not be held from August 1st through August 11th. Please contact us the week of the 14th to see when these programs will resume. Meanwhile, Stories in the Park will continue to meet in Church Square Park on Tuesdays at 10:30. Children ages 2 to 5 are welcome and no registration is required. Look for us in the grass, under the trees near the Church Square Park Gazebo.

What's Happening in YA The Young Adult Room now has new shelves!! Thank you for your patience while our room has been closed for painting and renovation. Teens entering 6th through 12th grade please come to a Summer Reading Club meeting, Thursday, August 3rd. We will discuss the books you've been reading and celebrate the grand reopening of our new and improved Young Adult Room. Refreshments will be served.

What's Happening in Reference The Hoboken City Council Minutes from 1897 to 1947 have been rebound as brand new books and also scanned onto a computer hard drive in a digital format. The Innovative Document Imaging Company will be sending the volumes back to the library early August. The BCCLS public computers will be upgraded to Windows XP in the first week of August and new security software will be added. Windows XP is a newer, more robust operating system.

What's Happening in Circulation Receipt printers are now being used so that when you check out books or pay fines you will have one sheet with all the information you need!

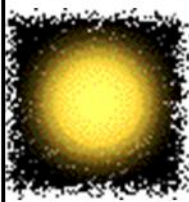

August Reference Display is Out of this World!

For the Month of August the Hoboken Public Library will deal with the life and works of Gene Rodenberry, whose birthday is August 19th. The display will showcase not only the life and accomplishments of this man, but also the Star Trek series that made him a household name.

The interesting and informative display is located on the second floor vestibule near the reference department.

Summer Hours are now in effect see the calendar section for details!
