August 2010

80's Movie Month at the Hoboken Public Library

This month the library pays tribute to the 1980's with hilarious comedies from the decade of big shoulder pads and even bigger hair. Whether you remember these films fondly or you want to see why they are considered comedy classics, come to this free series.

On Tuesday, August 3 at 2:00 PM join us for the Jane Fonda, Lily Tomlin, and Dolly Parton hit, Nine to Five. Then on Tuesday, August 10 at 6:00 PM come see the Rodney Dangerfield classic, Easy Money. On August 17 at 6:00 PM we will be showing the rockumentary parody This Is SpinalTap!

On August 24 at 2:00 PM come out of the Summer heat for Strange Brew. Finally we finish up our film series on August 31 at 2:00 PM with John Candy's hilarious Uncle Buck.

Book Art

In honor of Summer reading our two Picturing America pieces for the month of August will be reproductions of book artwork including N.C. Wyeth cover illustration for James Fenimore Cooper's Last of the Mohicans and American Flamingo one of 435 hand-colored engravings that make up John James Audubon's Birds of America.
