Public Library card to participate (can be presented by an accompanying adult in parent's absence).

Winter Holiday Tales

On Saturday, December 2 at 2pm join us for an adventure of multi-cultural holiday stories from

Christmas, Chanukah, and Kwanzaa, featuring storyteller, Gerald Fierst. Fierst has appeared throughout the US, England, and Asia. He began his theatrical career at Yale and is a recipient of a New Jersey State Council Fellowship in Playwriting. He is the co-director of the MidAtlantic Storytellers' Gathering. This family program is sponsored by the Friends of the Hoboken Library and is open to children of all ages. No pre-registration is required.

December Events for Teens

Thursday is teen night at the library. Teens in grades 6-12 can join us for a variety of events including film showings, game night, poetry open mike, and a teen advisory board meeting to plan future events. See the calendar section for specific dates. Earn community service credit while helping to plan fun events for teens at the library for the coming weeks. New board members always welcome.

December Book Review: Cesar's Way: The Natural, Everyday Guide to Understanding and Correcting Common Dog Problems

Fans of the National Geographic Channel's The Dog Whisperer with Cesar Millan will be grateful for Cesar's Way, an accessible guide to help new and current dog owners better understand their beloved pets. Cesar explains that dogs are not complicated. They rely on three key elements in their lives:

exercise, discipline, and affection (in that order). "Problem dogs" can be attributed to "problem owners,". Cesar's Way is really a training program for dog owners, with chapters devoted to understanding the "power of the pack," taking responsibility for "how we screw up our dogs," and learning how to manage aggression. Cesar's book (a must-have for new and old dog owners) moves beyond basic obedience school techniques, and teaches owners how to change unwanted behavior by better understanding their "best friends."
