

The Holiday Troubadours

On Saturday, December 6th at 2:00 PM, take a musical journey around the world to celebrate Christmas, Chanukah, Kwanza, and other winter festivities. This is a multi-cultural experience with instruments, songs, and dances from many different nations. This Saturday family entertainment does not require preregistration. The program is sponsored by the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library.

Here's What's Happening in December @ Your Library

Frank Sinatra Display

In addition to the Sinatra memorabilia always on display in the periodical room, we will also be featuring a display in the second floor vestibule in honor of Frank Sinatra's birthday. Frank Sinatra was born on December 12, 1915. He made more than 200 albums and several musicals and films including From Here to Eternity for which he was nominated for Best Supporting Actor. The display will include records, a copy of Frank's birth certificate, pictures, and more celebrating the birth of one of Hoboken's most famous and favorite sons.

Book Discussion

On December 16th, at 6:00, join us for a discussion of Eat, Pray, Love by Elizabeth Gilbert. After a major life event, the author of this touching memoir traveled around the world for a year trying to find herself and balance in her life. Join us for a good book and great discussion! Registration is required. Call 201-420-2347 to reserve a spot.

Movie Series for Adults

On December 17, at 2:00 PM, we will host a showing of Citizen Kane, for adults, on the third floor of the Hoboken Public Library. This unforgettable drama was called by Roger Ebert

"one of the miracles of the cinema" and is considered one of the best movies of all time. The story traces the life of publisher Charles Foster Kane played by Orson Welles. Kane is based on William Randolph Hearst. The movie won an Academy Award for Best Original Screenplay in 1942. Join us for a classic film and holiday cookies.
