

June Displays

A Garden Grows in Hoboken

A Garden Grows in Hoboken. June 4th is the Hoboken Secret Gardens Tour, sponsored by the Hoboken Historical Museum. This tour lets the average garden enthusiast into the "secret" world of Hoboken gardens and gardeners and to highlight this, the library will display not only Tour related materials and pictures, but also library materials related to gardens and gardening. Remember New Jersey is the "Garden State" so don't miss out. Even if you can't go on the tour, you can enjoy this display for the entire month of June. It will be located on the 2nd floor.

GLBT Book Month

June is GLBT (Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender) book month so our display will highlight famous GLBT authors. Authors include Oscar Wilde, Truman Capote, Gertrude Stein, E.M. Foster, Rita Mae Brown and Clive Barker. It is located on the 2nd floor.

LexisNexis

On our website under a link for Catalogs and Databases, the library has added lexisnexis.com/news, which is a free service providing the latest national and international news. Patrons can also use LexisNexis AlaCarte to search the archives and select the full text of an article for a charge of three dollars.

Area Home Pages

Also for your convenience we have added home pages of many local area schools and Hudson County cities and towns. The new links are under the Hoboken/New Jersey link under Search the Net. They include home pages for Stevens Institute, Hudson County Community College, Saint Peter's College, Jersey City, Bayonne, Guttenberg, Harrison, Kearny, North Bergen, Secaucus, and Weehawken.
