Dorothea Lange Display

For the month of March the Hoboken Public Library will celebrate Women's History Month by showcasing famous photographer Dorothea Lange. Born in Hoboken as Dorothea Margarette Nutzhorn; she would become famous in the thirties and forties by photographing everything from migrant workers to people on the street. The display will contain library materials, including an early photo taken of Thomas Hatfield, the Hoboken Public Library's First Librarian.

Here's What's Happening in March @ Your Library

Flute Sweets and Tickletoons

On March 1st at 2:00 PM Flute Sweets and Tickletoons will feature "Little Kids Little Songs." The music is performed by Keith Torgan accompanied by flutist Barbara Siesel. Soft, sweet, playful and funny songs are created to delight and engage their imaginations and will enchant your little ones. Torgan has written over a thousand songs, appeared in cabarets and universities. Siesel has appeared as soloist in principal halls of China, Korea, Spain, Japan, Taiwan, Russia and the United States. She has made extended tours of the Far East, Spain and China. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library.

Classical Saxophonist

Talented classical and jazz saxophonist, Shannon Pierce, will perform at the Hoboken Public Library on Wednesday, March 12th at 6:30 PM. Pierce has a Bachelor's of Music Degree in Performance from the Mason Gross Schools of the Arts at Rutgers University, where he studied with both Ralph Bowen and Mark Kirk. Along with solo performances, he has performed with the Rutgers University Orchestra, Rutgers University Wind Ensemble, and a variety of Saxophone Quartets and Chamber groups.

Blue Collar Bay

Stephen Axelrod will perform his one man play on Friday, March 14th at 2:00 PM in the reading room. The play is autobiographical and chronicles the story of a third generation truck driver and former Marine who becomes a broker on Wall Street. Stephen Axelrod has acted in many films including "Sons", "Ransom", and "In the Soup," winner of the 1992 Sundance Film Festival. He played Detective Catalano on "Law and Order" for three seasons and recently was Walsh on "Law and Order Criminal Intent." Axelrod has a BA in Drama from Hunter College.
