Here's What's Happening in March @ Your Library

Fairytale Castle Puppet Show

Delightful, sophisticated and entertaining, the Fairytale Castle Puppet Theatre performs a show of three Fairytales: Rumpelstiltskin, Rapunzel, and Sleeping Beauty. Saturday, March 4th at 2:00 p.m. Program is sponsored by the "Friends of the Library."

Tarantella

On March 6, from 6 PM to 7 PM join us for a lecture and demonstration of Italian dancing. D'Italia! Italian American Entertainment founder and director, Marylou "Mariuccia" Romano will provide an informative and entertaining program. There will be a special focus on women's dances in honor of Women's History Month.

Financial Management Seminar for Women

Women of all ages will be interested in this workshop held on March 9 at 6:00 in the second floor Reading Room. The workshop is designed to invoke financial confidence by providing money management and investment strategies that regardless of economic level or financial skill you can begin implementing. Attendees will be given a take home workbook to review topics discussed. This valuable resource contains nearly 150 pages of financial strategies, worksheets, and self-analysis quizzes. Call 718-836-2974 or email rajorge@ft.newyorklife.com to register.

Librarian Poets

On Thursday March 23rd at 6:30 PM, Ona Gritz, the Young Adult Librarian, and Aimee Sefczek, the Reference Librarian, will be reading their poetry. Aimee Sefczek received her Masters of Fine Arts in Creative Writing from Emerson College in Boston. OnaGritz's chapbook of poems, Left Standing, was recently published by Finishing Line Press. Ona's poetry has been published in numerous anthologies and journals, including Literary Mama.

March Women's History Month Display

If you think the science fiction and fantasy genres are only written by men, for men; boy are you mistaken! For the month of March the Library's display will celebrate Women's History Month by showcasing the women of science fiction and fantasy. Learn about authors such as Andre Norton, Ann McCaffrey, Octavia Butler, Ursula Le Guin, Katharine Burdekin, and Helen Hope Mirrlees, and Lynn Abbey.

A Message from the New Head of Reference

Please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Samuel Latini, and I'm the new Supervising Librarian of the Reference Department. My background includes working at the East Brunswick Public Library on the Information Technology staff, and the Elizabeth Public Library as a Reference Librarian.

My first job as a professional librarian was here at the Hoboken Public Library from 1985 to 1987. I look forward to serving the community and helping the library grow.
