Here's What's Happening in March @ Your Library

Magician

On March 3rd at 2:00 PM Join us for an hour of fun-filled magic and a touch of comedy with the ever popular John Carlson. This family program, sponsored by the Friends of the Public Library, will be entertaining for children of all ages. Carlson first learned magic by practicing with a magic club he started at his local library in Brooklyn when he was twelve. Now he will amaze your children with his magical talents at the Hoboken Library.

Afghanistan: Hope on a Pinpoint

Rescheduled from January, Monday, March 5th at 6:00 PM in the second floor reference room, the Library will present Dr. Janet Larson who will give a slide lecture and discussion on her travels through Afghanistan. Dr. Larson is an Associate Professor of English, and Director of the English Master's Program at Rutgers University in Newark. She received her B.A. in English and Political Science from Valpariso University in Indiana and her Ph.D. in Victorian Literature and Culture from Northwestern.

Angelo Saverino

On Tuesday, March 6th, at 6:00 PM Angelo Saverino will be speaking in the second floor reading room on using faith to overcome life's obstacles. Mr. Saverino is an author and actor. He was at one time an executive at a major educational publisher before becoming a sports agent. Last year he published The Heart of the Order which discusses his time as a sports agent and his strict, but nurturing Sicilian family.

Investing for Late Starters

If you are in your 40's, 50's or later and are just now beginning to think about investing then this program is for you. On Wednesday, March 28th at 6:00 PM the library will be featuring a program on investing later in life. If you had to delay your investing due to issues with family or career changes, you can still learn how to begin investing today. Speaker, Glenn LeBoeuf, is currently First Vice President of Investments at Smith Barney in Morristown.

Saturday Computer Game Tournament for Teens

The Young Adult department will hold its first Saturday program on March 10th at 11:30. Join us for a computer game tournament! Refreshments will be served. See the calendar section for more teen events on Thursday evenings!

Women Warriors Display for Women's History Month

Cleopatra

March is Women's History Month and to celebrate the Hoboken Public Library's display will highlight women warriors and soldiers. Some of those mentioned will include such well known figures as Cleopatra, Molly Pitcher, Boudica, and Joan of Arc as well as those lesser known figures such as the Trung Sisters of Vietnam, Bibi Ayesha of Afghanistan, and Zenobia of Palmyra. Also included will be articles on women in the Iraq war.
