Help for Job Seekers Resume Workshop

On March 9th at 5:30 pm, this workshop will include an in-depth presentation on the purpose and components of resumes and a Q&A session. Participants will receive printed resume examples and other handouts to take home, and a Q&A session.

Cover Letter Workshop

On March 23rd at 5:30 pm, this workshop will focus on the purpose and major components of a cover letter. Different types of cover letters and tips on what to include and what to leave out will also be discussed. Job workshops are taught by librarian Matt Latham.

Infotrac Databases for Job Searchers

Infotrac has two useful databases for researching companies. They are available to Hoboken Library Cardholders at <http://hoboken.bccls.org/html/database.htm>

General Business File ASAP

analyzes company performance, trends in the industry and allows access to reports, trade publications, journals and company directory listings.

Business and Company Resource Center supplies in-depth company and industry news including company profiles, brand information, rankings, investment reports, company histories, and periodicals.

Women's History Month @ Your Library

Gender Identity Lecture

On Tuesday, March 16th at 6:00 PM, the library will feature the second program in our Lecture Series at the Hoboken Public Library, Gender Identity with Dr. Cynthia Eller. Dr. Eller is a member of the Department of Religion and Philosophy at Montclair State University and author of Am I a Woman?: A Skeptic's Guide to Gender.

Chocolate with Chef Maricel Presilla

The third week in March is National Chocolate week. Maricel Presilla who owns two Hoboken restaurants, will give a lecture on March 18th at 6:00 PM, on this sweet treat. Presilla recently had the honor of cooking at the White House. We will also have a display about female chefs including Presilla and a display on chocolate in our second floor vestibule. She will be bringing chocolate.

Bright Star

Jane Campion is a writer, director, and producer. Her latest film Bright Star chronicles the secret love between English poet, John Keats and Fanny Brawne. Join us for a special screening of the film on March 23rd at 2:00 PM.

The Story Sisters Book Discussion

Join us on March 24th at 2:00 and 6:30 for a discussion of Alice Hoffman's latest novel, The Story Sisters. The novel tells the story of three sisters who must try to navigate their way through life's obstacles in order to transform from young girls into women.

Poetry for Women's History Month

The YA Department will host it's annual poetry reading to honor Women's History Month, Date TBA. High school and middle school students will share poems by favorite Women Poets.

Quilts: 19th through 20th Century

Throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, women created quilts. Our Picturing America display shows a variety of quilts created by women whose life experiences varied, but who all expressed themselves through their handiwork: Hannah Greenlee, a freed-woman from the North Carolina; Susan Noakes McCord, a farmer's wife in Indiana; and quilts created by Amish woman in Lancaster County in PA. Also on display this month will be photographs 18th-20th Century silver.
