Special Kids and YA Events

Dr. Seuss' Birthday

March 2 at 3:15 PM, celebrate the 107th birthday of Ted Giesel, aka Dr. Seuss. Lois Gross will do a special reading of "Horton Hatches an Egg," plus Seusercize, and kids will get Seuss birthday hats. For Hoboken resident kids 3 1/2 and up with cards, only. Reservation required. Call 201-420-2348.

Sweetbeatz Music

Children and their families, come enjoy Sweetbeatz Music on March 12 at 2 PM. This event does not require preregistration and is sponsored by the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library.

Yoga for Kids

A special yoga demo for children in grades 2nd through 5th! Lisa Userovich from Mimi Kids Yoga will do a one-time program for young yogis on March 17 at 3:30 PM. Call 201-420-2348 to reserve a spot.

Teen Literary Jeopardy

On Friday, March 25 at 3:00 PM, join teens in grades 6-12 for a fun book related competition. Test your knowledge and win chocolate treats.

Women's History Month @ the Hoboken Public Library

Winter's Bone

On Tuesday, March 15 at 2:00 PM, join us for a screening of Winter's Bone, which was nominated for this year's Academy Award's Best Picture. Teenager Ree Dolly sets out to track down her father who put their house up for his bail bond and then disappeared. If she fails, Ree and her family will be turned out into the Ozark woods. This movie takes a compelling look at gender relations.

Tea for Three

On Thursday, March 24 at 1:15 PM, Emmy Award-winning actress Elaine Bromka presents a one woman play at the library, "Lady Bird, Pat, & Betty: Tea for Three." The play reveals three remarkable first ladies and the personal cost of what Pat Nixon called "the hardest unpaid job in the world." Bromka has 30 years experience in film, television, Broadway, and Off-Broadway. She starred in the P.B.S. show "The Presidents." The play is approximately 90 minutes long.

Teens Celebrate Women's History Month with Poetry

The Young Adult Department of the Hoboken Public Library will host it's annual poetry reading to honor Women's Month on March 11 at 11 AM. High school and middle school students will share poems by favorite Women Poets.

The Art of Lidia Chepovetsky

In March the work of Lidia Chepovetsky will be displayed in the second floor gallery. If you would like to meet the artist, she will be in on March 19 from 12-3 PM. Chepovetsky was born in Kiev, Ukraine and has a designer mechanical engineer Master's Degree. She has taken classes at Rudy DePaoli's Art Studio in Brooklyn and at the Art Students League of New York. Her paintings utilize the natural, radiant light of Italy, where she spent three months, adding a sculptural depth to the objects that she paints. Her paintings show her love for nature and people. Lidia Chepovetsky participated and won prizes in shows at the Art Student League of NY, Brooklyn Art Festival, Park Slope Historical Show, and the Conference House Artistic Show.

Women's History Display

Throughout March there will be a special display in the second floor vestibule featuring material from both our history and main collection focusing on Women's History Month. Learn about the Hoboken Public Library's first female librarian, one of the first female little league baseball players, the town's first female mayor and more!

March Book Discussion

On Wednesday, March 30 at 2:00 PM, join us for a discussion of Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go, the story of a woman who looks back with friends at their time at a boarding school and explore the impact on their adult lives.

NetLibrary EBooks

The library is pleased to announce our new subscription to NetLibrary EBooks. With our initial collection of 180 titles, plus an additional 3,400+ publicly accessible titles with subjects ranging from computing to travel to writing, and authors from Austen to Zola you are sure to find one to strike your fancy.
