Here's What's Happening in May @ Your Library

Thank you to everyone who joined us at The Hoboken Public Library for a series of special events in celebration of National Library Week in April! We hope you'll join us for more fun and interesting events throughout the year and explore our many books, movies, cds, periodicals and utilize our other services.

Tickles the Clown
Join us on May 3 at 2:00 PM. Silly, and totally non-threatening, Tickles the clown will entertain you with her goofy clown magic. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library.

5 Secrets to Looking and Feeling Younger - It's all about being healthy and fit
On May 12th at 11:00, in the second floor reading room, the library will feature a program on how health is not simply about being symptom free, health is functioning at 100% of your potential. Learn tips that will have you feeling and looking younger.

Weekly Program for Teens in Grades 6-12
Teens in grades 6-12, join us for PlayStation game time on Fridays at 3pm. Discover your talents by playing Rock Band and Singstar, or bring your own PS2 compatible sports games.

Latino Book Month

In honor of Latino Book Month, the Hoboken Public Library will feature a display of works and information about a variety of Latino authors in the second floor vestibule. The libraries collection includes not only books in translation, but also a variety of works in their original Spanish. The library's Spanish Language Book Collection includes both fiction and nonfiction works. It is located along the back wall of the first floor near the entrance to the elevator lobby .

Calendar of Events
