

Tasty November Book Reviews for Chocolate Lovers

Chocolate and Vanilla

Are you fan of both chocolate and vanilla, but can never find a book containing both? Well look no further, Chef Gale Gand's new flipbook Chocolate and Vanilla contains 60 truly tempting recipes--half featuring chocolate, the other half featuring vanilla. Information is also included on the history of chocolate and vanilla, along with tips on buying and working with each ingredient. Full-page color photographs show off many of her mouth-watering treats.

Chocolate Sensations: over 200 easy-to-make recipes.

A chocolate-lover's dream, Chocolate Sensations is bursting with chocolate-based treats. Each recipe features preparation and baking times, step-by-step instructions, and a mouth-watering color photograph of the finished dish. Many recipes include tips on ingredient substitutions and techniques that make completing the recipe easier. You'll even find hints on how to best shave, chop, grate, bake, or store chocolate and learn how to melt it on a stove top or microwave without scorching. These recipes have been gathered from all over the world and include classic and unusual recipes.

Here's What's Happening in November @ Your Library

Envisionware Software

On Tuesday, November 14, the library will be installing Envisionware computer management software on the public computers on the second floor. The software allows patrons one hour computer use. Our policy of two non-consecutive one hour sessions will still be in effect, but will be monitored by the computer software. The computers will be out of service on that day. Please call (201) 420-2347 for further information.

Next Reads Newsletters

Have you ever wanted advice on new books to read in the genres that you enjoy? Starting in November Hoboken Public Library patrons will have access to the the Next Read Service provided by NoveList. Newsletters are available on a variety of topics such as Science Fiction, Mystery, Romance, and Fantasy. The newsletters are either monthly or bimonthly and you can sign up for any of the topics you want and the newsletters will be emailed to you. Books are picked by a staff of librarians. A link is provided on our website for you to sign up.

Leonardo Da Vinci Lecture

On Tuesday, November 21st, at 6:00 PM in the second floor main reading room, the Library will present a program on the life and works of Leonardo Da Vinci. Besna Mison, art educator, artist, and lecturer, will discuss Leonardo's life, his association with the famous families of Northern Italy, his rivalry with Michelangelo, and his work for the French King, Francois I. Art lovers, history buffs, and fans of the Da Vinci Code novel will all enjoy this lecture.

Children's Program: Daisy D. Dots

On Saturday, November 4th, at 2:00 PM, in the second floor main reading room, the library will be featuring Daisy D. Dots. Daisy will introduce children to the art of clown costuming and perform her clown magic. Daisy is a member of the World Clown Association and Clowns of America International. She won first place for makeup and costume at the September 2000 National Clown Arts Project in Seaside Heights. This program is free, just bring your smile.
