

Passport to Retirement

How many of you are well-prepared for retirement. You may have done a good job of accumulating wealth and planned your estates. But have you developed a written plan on managing retirement income? On November 12th at 2:00, this workshop will cover seven areas that will serve as a passport to helping you make sound financial decisions. The presenters will talk about income today and income tomorrow, helping you plan to achieve "income for life." Each participant will be given a booklet on retirement planning and a worksheet to develop a written retirement plan. Laurence M. Braunstein and Jacqueline G. Darien of LMB Group, Inc. will be presenting this workshop. The LMB Group is a financial planning, retirement planning and wealth management firm.

Here's What's Happening in November @ Your Library

Puppet Theater Inside and Out!

On November 1st at 2:00, Steve Abrams will present Puppet Theater Inside and Out. This fun family event will amuse your little ones. Steve Abrams sparks imaginations and encourages creative risks with his wonderful introduction to the puppet world. The event is sponsored by the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library and does not require pre-registration.

Way Beyond Angkor

On November 17th at 3:30, writer and explorer Jay Eric Kanter will discuss his book of travel essays, Way Beyond Angkor: Exploring the Lost Temples of Cambodia. The last remnants of Cambodia's ancient Angkor Empire have been called the greatest structures ever built. Kanter will detail the impossible beauty and zany charms of this lost world and its inhabitants. Whether you are a seasoned explorer or an armchair traveler, this fun and enlightening presentation is for you.

Book Discussion

On November 18th at 6:00, join us for a discussion of Suite Francaise. This touching novel was written about life under Nazi occupation by an author who passed away sixty-two years earlier at Auschwitz. Registration is required. Call 201-420-2347 to reserve a spot. December's book will be Eat, Pray, Love by Elizabeth Gilbert.

Movie Series for Adults

On November 20th, at 2:00 PM, we will host a showing of Roman Holiday, for adults, on the third floor of the Hoboken Public Library. Join us for a classic film and light snacks. A princess' (Audrey Hepburn) travels incognito in Rome to experience a "normal life." A reporter (Gregory Peck) discovers her ruse, but falls in love with her before his exclusive story about the princess' double life goes to press. Audrey Hepburn won an Academy Award® for her role in this exquisite romantic drama.

Vote!

In honor of election day, Library Board President, Arturo Martinez has loaned the library his private collection of campaign buttons. The collection features buttons from past presidents such as Kennedy, Roosevelt, and Clinton. The library will also be featuring a display examining the different party animals that have come to symbolize the Democratic and Republican as well as some of the smaller parties. The displays will be up till the end of November.
