

Demons and Vampires for Spooky Halloween Reads

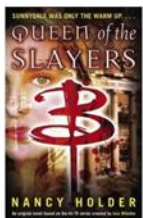

Carpe Demon: Adventures of a Demon-Hunting Soccer Mom

Kate Connor looks like your typical Soccer mom living a typical suburban existence in San Diablo, California with her husband and two kids. In truth, Kate is a former demon hunter who believed her past was behind her. That is before a demon jumps through her kitchen window and tries to kill her.

Julie Kenner's Carpe Demon: Adventures of a Demon-Hunting Soccer Mom is funny and fast paced with enough action to keep any reader hooked till the end.

Queen of the Slayers

Buffy fans have wondered how their favorite Slayer's life turned out after Season 7 ended and Nancy Holder's Queen of the Slayers does just that. Set seconds after the Show's last episode Buffy must face evil gods, another Hellmouth, a reorganized Watchers Council, hundreds of new slayers, and that's just the beginning.

Here's What's Happening in October @ Your Library

The Fool and the Flying Ship

On Saturday, October 1, 2005 at 2:00 PM in the second floor Reading Room The Fool and the Flying Ship a Russian Fable will be performed. Two versatile performers use jazz, tap, ballads, and even rock-n-roll to create many zany characters.

Through the performance children will learn the virtues of kindness and sharing.

College Financing Seminar

On October 12, from 6:00-7:00 Gina Benkendorf, financial consultant at A.G. Edwards will be speaking in the second floor reference room about 529 Savings Plans.

This presentation is useful to parents or guardians of children of all ages who wish to begin saving for their child's education.

Ivo Calderon performs for Latin American History Month

On October 27, from 6:00-7:00, in celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, Ivo Calderon will be performing Spanish American guitar pieces. Calderon is a classical guitarist, who currently lives in Bayonne. He is also a talented painter whose works include depictions of wildlife and gaucho (Argentinean cowboys).

Hoboken Firsts Display

In celebration of the Hoboken Museum's newly published book 100 Hoboken Firsts, by Jim Hans, this October the Library will celebrate the 150th Anniversary with its own display based on Hoboken Firsts. The display will feature library materials related to firsts associated with technology, education, history, consumer products, and important Hoboken buildings. The display is located on the second floor
