Here's What's Happening in October @ Your Library

Big Jeff
Saturday, October 7th at 1:30 p.m. - Big Jeff is stopping by for a musical visit. He'll be playing many of his best-known songs plus some familiar favorites. There will be singing along, dancing around, hands clapping, children smiling and lots of listening and learning. We will be offering programs every first Saturday of the month typically at 2:00 p.m. No registration is required for Saturday's Family entertainment and all programs are free. Look for our ads in your local newspaper, library newsletter and library website: <http://hoboken.bccls.org/> Flyers may be found either at the Circulation desk or in the Children's room.

Someone Must Wash the Dishes

On Tuesday, October 17th, at 6:00 P.M. on the second floor Main Reading Room, the Library will present a satirical monologue performed by Michèle LaRue. Ms. LaRue is a professional actress who has worked with theater companies throughout the northeast.

What's New at the Hoboken Public Library

If you are curious what new items have been added to the Hoboken Public Library collection you can go to the BCCLS web page at www.bccls.org and click on the BCCLS visor for What is New @ Hoboken. You will get a list of all the books, DVDs, CDs, and audiobooks that have been added to our collection in the past week.

October Art Exhibit

Beginning in October we will be displaying the work of Chris Kappmeier. He is a graduate of the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Arts. Kappmeier's landscapes vividly capture moments in time since they are painted on location.

Programs for Teens at the Library
