Here's What's Happening in September @ Your Library

What You Don't Know Can Keep You Out of College
Don Dunbar, author of What You Don't Know Can Keep

You Out of College will be speaking at the library on September 10th at 6:30 in the second floor reading room. Don Dunbar, a resident of Fairfield in Connecticut, is a former college consultant for Philips Academy, Andover. He is one of the nation's leading experts on the college admissions process. In his book, he talks about thirteen common mistakes that could prevent college admission. This presentation will be informative to teens and parents and guardians of teens preparing for the college admissions process.

The Language of Money
Have you been interested in investing, but felt intimidated by the lingo? On September 20th from 6:30-7:30 the library will be featuring a presentation on understanding investing and the terms involved.

Robert S. Collesano is a senior financial advisor with Merrill Lynch. He will discuss how investments compare in terms of risk level and teach basic monetary lingo.

Depression Lecture
The Friends of the Hoboken Public Library will be sponsoring the fourth S.W.E.L.L. (Senior Health and Wellness) program at the Library on Sept 21st at 2:30. Signs and treatments for depression will be covered. There will be a display in the second floor vestibule highlighting this topics throughout September. Special thanks to Carmelo Garcia, Director of Human Services for his assistance.

Green Buildings
On September 25th from 6:30-7:30 join us for a discussion on how to make sure your building is environmentally friendly. The guest speaker that evening will be from the U.S. Green Building Council NJ Chapter which sets the standards for certification of LEED buildings (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design). More information about the organization may be found at www.usbgc.org

September Art and History Displays

Art Work by Nona Vardidze
Art work by Nona Vardidze will be displayed in the second floor vestibule in September. Vardidze works with ink, and her art work is very detailed and varied. Her influences include modern art, especially Pablo Picasso, and Japanese art. She is inspired by the amazing embroidered patterns of flowers, cranes, pines, and flower carts that embellish Japanese kimonos in rich color.

Day of the Dead Display
September 15th begins Hispanic Heritage Month. To celebrate, the Hoboken Public Library display will highlight the Mexican Holiday, the Day of the Dead, or Dia de Los Muertos. Items discussed will be what the Day of the Dead is, how it started, and the ways people celebrate this holiday. The Display is located in the second floor vestibule.
