Book Discussion and Novel Night @ HPL

Wednesday Book Discussion Group

On September 24th at 6:00, join us for a discussion of Jodi Picoult's My Sister's Keeper. The novel details the life of a teen whose parents conceived her in order to have a bone marrow match for her older sister. Her emotional quest for identity is handled in the sensitive and meaningful way that Picoult is known for. Fans of Picoult or first time readers are encouraged to come and offer their perspective on the book. The Time Traveler's Wife by Audrey Niffenegger will be discussed on October 15, 2008. Registration is required. Call 201-420-2347 for more information and to reserve a spot.

Great Eating for a Good Cause on October 18

Reservations are now being taken for Novel Night, Volume Two, the second annual Literary Dining Event. Sponsored by the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library, Novel Night will take place Saturday, October 18, 2008, starting at 7:30 p.m. This year, 20 Hoboken hosts will offer 20 different literary-themed dinners featuring appropriately matched cuisines—Indian (The Namesake), Italian (The Prince), and many more. The evening will conclude with dessert and coffee at the Hoboken Public Library. Reservations are due by October 1. Guests can submit up to five dinner choices on the downloadable reply card available at: www.hobokenfol.org/novelnight.html. Although every effort will be made to seat guests at a dinner of their choice, dinner capacities are limited. Last year's Novel Night sold out in advance. Tickets are $100 per person and are fully tax-deductible. All funds raised by Novel Night will be used to preserve valuable documents and materials in the Library's historical collection. If you have questions about Novel Night or the Friends of the Hoboken Public Library, please call (201) 795-5410, e-mail novelnight@gmail.com or write to the Friends at 500 Park Avenue, Hoboken, NJ 07030.
