Senior Day @ the Library

The Hoboken Public Library is excited to host Senior Day at the Library on September 20 from 11:00 AM to 2:30 PM. Senior Day will feature many fun and interesting events including a tour of the building, library catalog presentation and library card sign up. At 12:30 lunch will be served accompanied by music provided by Taharqa, an amazing singer/songwriter and guitarist with elements of R&B and powerful vocals. The day will end with a presentation from Dr. Kane about traveling in the USA. There will be free give-aways for all attending seniors. Whether you are a frequent library user or a first time visitor we hope you will join us and learn about what the library has to offer Seniors. Please make a reservation at 201-420-2347.

Fall Weekend Hours
 Return after Labor Day!
 Saturdays 10 AM-5 PM
 Sundays 11 AM-2 PM

Here's What's Happening in September @ Your Library

The Runaways
 On September 14 at 2:00 PM, the library will feature The Runaways, a fun movie that tells the tale of the all female rock band that formed in the 70s which included Joan Jett & Lita Ford.

Computer Classes @ the Library
 Beginning in September the library will offer computer classes in our portable computer lab. On September 21 from 2:00-3:30 our first computer class will cover mouse and keyboard use. On September 28 from 6:00-7:30 we will feature a class in Excel. Mouse and basic keyboard skills are required for the Excel class. Please RSVP as space is limited.

Repairing Politics
 On September 23 at 6:00 PM, the library will present the first in our Fall Lecture Series. Dr. Jonathan Wharton, Assistant Professor of Social Sciences at Stevens Institute of Technology, will discuss his views and research into political corruption.

Open-Mic: Park Bench Poetry
 On September 25 at 2:00 pm (sign up begins 1:45) the Hoboken Library continues our Open-Mic series hosted by Sacha Chavez in the Church Square Park pavilion. Local poets please come share your work! We will have light refreshments and feature a performance by the Smiling Lights.

Resume Workshop—On Sept 28 at 2:00 this class will begin with a thirty minute presentation on the basics of resume writing. Afterwards, students will have help working on their resumes and have their questions answered. Register for the workshop at 201-420-2347.

Book Discussion
 On September 29 at 2:00 PM join us for a discussion of Aimee Bender's The Particular Sadness of Lemon Cake. Her charming and thoughtful novel tells the story of Rose Edelstein who has the ability to know the secret details about people's lives from the food they prepare.

Revolution 67'
 On September 29 at 6:00 PM there will be a screening of Revolution 67', a documentary about the race riots in Newark. Afterwards a scholar will host a discussion of the film. This program is sponsored by the NJ Council of the Humanities.

Calendar of Events @your library
